PILES.

Many a person has suffered for years with Internal, Bleeding, External or Itching Piles, and has tried, over and over again, for a remedy to cure, but in vain. Thus it used to be, but things are changed; improvements have been made and wonderful discoveries—one of the most important of the greatest benefit to mankind is Brigg's Pile Remedies, which are warranted to cure Piles in every form if used in time according to directions.

CORNS! CORNS!

What is more annoying than Corns? [illegible] more oppressive than Bunions? [illegible] more painful than Ingrowing Nails? [illegible] The most distressing of these troubles can be immediately relieved and quickly cured with Dr. J. Brigg's Alleviator and Curative.

LUNG DISEASES!

Diseases, Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, &c.—The above complaints are [illegible] flourishing in prevalence, and if neglected, [illegible] may lead to that dreadful and fatal disease, consumption. [illegible] a positive remedy for all diseases of the Lungs, Throat and Chest [illegible] when used in the morning of attack.

NEURALGIA

[illegible] ful effects of Dr. J. Brigg's Alleviator for the speedy [illegible] Co., E. R. Butler, J. F. Patten, Hood & Rowe, and Druggists generally.

PURIFY THE BLOOD

AND

BEAUTIFY THE COMPLEXION

BY USING

HELMBOLD'S

CATAWBA GRAPE JUICE PILLS,

—AND—

HELMBOLD'S

HIGHLY CONCENTRATED

FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA.

In the Spring and Summer months the system undergoes a change. This is the time to use good blood-renewing, purifying and invigorating medicines.

HELMBOLD'S

Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla

AND

HELMBOLD'S

FLUID

Extract Grape Juice Pills,

Are the Best and Most Reliable.

One bottle of Helmbold's Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla equals in strength one gallon of the Syrup or decoctions as made by druggists; and a wine glass added to a pint of water equals the celebrated Lisbon Diet Drink, a delightful and healthful beverage.

The Grape Juice Pill is composed of Fluid Extract of Catawba Grape Juice and Fluid Extract Rhubarb. Useful in Diseases requiring a cathartic remedy, and far superior to all other purgatives, such as Salts, Magnesia, &c.

HELMBOLD'S CA[illegible]

Is not a Patented Pill, put up as those ordinarily vended, but the result of TEN YEARS' EXPERIMENTING AND GREAT CARE IN PREPARATION.

Safe for and taken by children. No nausea, no griping pains, but mild pleasant and safe in operation.

Two bottles of the Fluid Extract of Sarsaparilla and one bottle of the Grape Juice Pills are worth their weight in gold to those suffering from

Poor Complexion,

Headache, Bad Blood,

Nervousness,

Wakefulness at night

Costiveness &

Irregularities,

And to those suffering from Broken and Delicate Constitutions it will give NEW BLOOD, NEW VIGOR and NEW LIFE.

The Catawba Grape Pills

Are done up with great care and in handsome bottles, and will surpass all those vended in wooden boxes, and carelessly prepared by inexperienced men, comparing with the English and French style of manufacturing.

HELMBOLD'S [illegible]!

Universally used for Diseases of the KIDNEYS, BLADDER, and all Diseases of the URINARY ORGANS, whether existing in Male or Female, and no matter of how long standing. There is no better known remedy for BRIGHT'S DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS.

All of H. T. HELMBOLD'S preparations are Pharmaceutical, not a single one being patented, but all on their own merits.

Dental Card.

I wish to say a word to the Gentlemen and Ladies of Bangor and vicinity. As parents you would do more for your children than for yourselves. A gentleman in Bangor, who is fifty years old, was in my office in April and said that he would give me one hundred dollars if I would save one tooth in his mouth without extracting it. But he was too late. If a man will thus do to save one tooth, what should he do for his children.

Now if you cannot save your own, you can save the teeth of your children. Almost every day some father or mother will come to the office with some dear child to have me extract some aching tooth. I examine the mouth and find that the painful tooth is not a temporary but a permanent one. The parent is surprised; you are wrong, she has never had but one tooth there, she will certainly have a permanent tooth when this one is out of the way.

A very large proportion of our patrons, have never known, or have forgotten, that in our first set we have but twenty teeth. And that all teeth that grow back of the twenty are permanent ones, thirty-two in all. I have extracted within the past year, seven permanent teeth for one little girl who was not eleven years old. Will you parents suffer your children to suffer for their life time by your neglect? If by neglect you have lost your natural teeth, a good editor will tell you where to go for the best artificial ones. Hundreds of people in Bangor and vicinity will endorse by their own experience all that he has said in his paper.

DR. J. K. LINCOLN.—Though we have not the pleasure of a personal acquaintance with the gentleman, yet we have reason to believe that he is a most skillful practitioner of the dental art. At least, he has made one old face in our house look young again, and has fitted, by art, a pair of jaws to masticate the food again which dame nature thought to deprive of this privilege a little too soon. We think the work and composition of the two full sets of teeth he has inserted cannot be exceled anywhere.—Rural Intelligencer.

My price now is $8 for a whole set of the best artificial teeth, $25 for a half set.

Portland and Ogdensburg R. R. Co,
DUE IN 1900.
Free from Government Tax.

The line of this Road is from Portland, Maine, to Swanton, Vt., and is many miles the shortest communication between the Lakes and the Seaboard.

The Eastern division, upon which this mortgage is issued is now under construction from Portland to North Conway, White Mountains, a distance of sixty miles.

Forty miles are already completed, upon which trains are running. The remaining twenty miles are nearly completed, and will be ready for traffic early in July, 1871.

$1,200,000 cash subscriptions have already been expended upon the Road, and this mortgage of the unusually small amount of $13,000 per mile has been issued for the purpose of thoroughly equipping and completing the road, and covers all the real and personal property of the Company.

D. of Wesleyan University of Middletown, Ct., and a Poem by Rev. Mark Trafton of Boston, followed by a dinner and speech and a reunion in the evening.

LAST DAYS OF TOUSSAINT L'OUVERTURE. We have seen that Toussaint L'Ouverture was forcibly carried away to France by order of the First Consul. The vessel that bore him arrived at Brest in August, where he was placed in the hands of the police, separated from his wife and daughter forever, hurried off to Paris under a strong guard, and thrown into prison. He was denied an interview with Bonaparte or his ministers. He asked in vain what was the cause of his arrest.—Without a trial he was speedily taken to the castle of St. Joux, in the department of Doubs and locked in its dungeons, damp with the mould of many scores of years. There, in solitary confinement, without fire, insufficient clothing, and daily food less than physicians pronounced sufficient to sustain life, the brave martyr, sixty years of age, was murdered by the slow torture of hunger and cold, by order of the liberticide about to assume the imperial purple. In vain he petitioned in touching words for a trial. The only notice he ever received from his persecutor was when he sent his Corsican secretary, Caffarelli, to demand of Toussaint where he had buried his treasure in San Domingo. "I have lost something more precious than money," was the meek and only reply of the famished prisoner. Then, seeing no hope for relief but in death, Toussaint began to prepare a written defense as his failing strength would allow.—It was the weary work of dark winter days in the dim twilight of a dungeon cell. He sent it to the First Consul at the ides of March, 1803, but it received no notice. The venerable patriot was becoming troublesome by his impertinent appeals for justice, and orders were given to his jailor to reduce his pittance of food, that sharper starvation might quickly paralyze his hand and heart and brain. The jailor—the governor of the castle—went away for four days, late in April leaving his almost exhausted prisoner without food or drink. When he came back the rats were gnawing the cold feet of the dead hero. Bonaparte's jealous and animosity were appeased, and he crowned the awful deed of murder by starvation with the black falsehood which he caused to be proclaimed, that Toussaint L'Ouverture had died of apoplexy.

The "horrors of San Domingo" were fearful, but none were so diabolical as the treatment Toussaint L'Ouverture received at the hands of Napoleon Bonaparte.—[Harper's Magazine.

ENGLISH CLERGYMEN FOR RESTORING THE NAPOLEONIC DYNASTY. An address of which the following is a copy, has been forwarded to Chislehurst. The document is signed by Dr. Lee, vicar of All Saints, Lambeth, England, and others of the clergy, besides a large number of lay dignitaries:

To His Imperial Majesty, the Emperor of the French, K. G.:

May it please your Majesty.—We, the undersigned, while tendering the expression of our sincere and happy sympathy with your Imperial Majesty, take the liberty of respectfully welcoming you to England.

Our earnest hope is that your Majesty, with the Empress and the Prince Imperial, may speedily be recalled to France to restore once again social order and religious liberty, and to protect the peace and disposed of your country from the inroads of a barbarous Socialism and the curse and despotism of an Anti-Christian Republic.

To this the Emperor has replied as follows:

CAMDEN-PLACE, CHISLEHURST, May 6.

GENTLEMEN: If the sorrow which the misfortunes heaped upon my country causes me could be alleviated, the lively sympathy which I have found since my arrival in England would have been a true consolation for me.

The address which you have sent has been a new evidence of sympathy, which has deeply touched me. I thank you for it, gentlemen, as well as for your good wishes for France, and I beg you to believe me sincere.

NAPOLEON.

THE SECRET OF NAPOLEON'S DOWNFALL.—Napoleon III is cool and calculating by nature, yet not even he was able to escape that intoxication which history teaches us to be inseparable from the acquisition of new and great powers. Up to 1860 he had conducted himself with rare circumspectness; though still rising, he advanced with extreme caution, and steadily kept within certain bounds. By protecting the Popedom he had won the hearts of the Catholic clergy, both in and out of France, and secured a foothold on the other side of the Alps. England, whose public opinion was at first very adverse to him, he propitiated by the Crimean war and then cemented the alliance by a liberal commercial treaty. He had sapped the power of Austria in the Apennine peninsula, and sown at the same time the seeds for that discord between Austria and Prussia which he vainly hoped would lead to their mutual injury and enfeeblement. Judged from his stand-point, thus far all seemed to have been well-planned and successfully executed. Neither public opinion nor the cabinets had as yet taken special offence. But the secret consciousness that to become indispensable to the fickle French people, and to perpetuate his dynasty he must still further augment the prestige and power of the Second Empire by territorial aggrandizement, drove him into these ill-matured, rash enterprises which have terminated in his complete ruin. Now and then he appeared disposed to pause in the downward course into which he had been so reluctantly betrayed, but fate and the logic of events impelled him on, until he found himself reduced to a position closely resembling that of his uncle; all of which corroborates the opinion that the Bonapartes are incapable of creating anything lasting, and that they are fitted neither for a republic nor a monarchy, having destroyed the former and misused the latter. [Lippincott's Magazine.

WHY A FRENCH MINISTER RESIGNED.—A French pamphlet, said to have been written by an ex-minister of the second empire, gives some interesting revelations apropos of Prince Bismark's statement in the German parliament that in August, 1866, the French government asked for Mayence as a compensation for the enlargement of the Prussian territory. The writer says that M. Drouyn de L'huys, who was then foreign minister in Paris, repeatedly urged on Napoleon that France could not possibly tolerate so enormous an increase in the power of Prussia, and that war was inevitable. At length the Emperor admitted that M. Drouyn de L'huys was right, and asked him at once to prepare the necessary despatches as a preliminary to the declaration of war. The minister then sent for the head of his cabinet, Count Chaudordy (the same who was afterwards minister of foreign affairs under Gambetta), and both of them worked at the despatches all night. Next morning M. Drouyn de L'huys went to the Tuileries with all his papers ready, but the Emperor received him very coldly. "Cher ministre," said Napoleon "I have just had a long conversation with the minister of war. We have entirely dropped the idea I spoke to you about yesterday. I have neither men, nor horses, nor arms."—The minister bowed and retired. An hour afterwards his resignation was received and accepted. The author adds that this story is "d'une parfaite exactitude."

I. O. O. F.—The laying of the corner stone of the new hall for the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in Boston on Tuesday, the 13th of June, will be the occasion of one of the most imposing demonstrations that has ever occurred in that section of the United States under the auspices of this order. The building is to be located on Berkeley street, at the junction of Tremont and Berkeley streets and Warren avenue. The lot contains 12,000 feet, which was purchased for $72,000 and the whole space is to be covered by an elegant granite building which will have a frontage of 103 feet on Tremont street, 80 on Berkely, and 90 on Warren avenue, with an open space or passage in the rear, so that it is well lighted on all sides. On the lower or first floor there will be four stores. On this floor there are two main entrances—one of which leads to the apartments of the order in the upper stories, and the other exclusively for the second story, which is to contain a public hall and offices to rent for business purposes. The third and fourth stories are occupied by the order. Its erection and completion will involve an expense, land and building, of about $300,000. A large number of visiting brethren are expected.

THE TREATY RATIFIED

The Senate, after a long and needless delay, has at last acquiesced in the common sense opinion of the people of this country, and ratified the Treaty of Washington, framed by the Joint High Commission for the purpose of settling the questions upon which our Government and that of Great Britain have so long been at variance. The Democratic Senators held a caucus Wednesday morning to determine what party course it was best to adopt on the treaty, but like all their caucuses lately, it amounted to nothing practically. They only concluded to go on record as protesting against the treaty if they could not succeed in amending it. The Senate met at 10 o'clock and immediately went into executive session on the Treaty. An earnest discussion ensued, and speeches were made by Senators Corbett, Vickers, Morrill of Vermont, Thurman, Morton and Kelley. The session was exciting, and lasted during the day and evening, the several amendments proposed being urged by the Senators who introduced them, but finally at ten minutes to eleven o clock the Treaty was ratified by a vote of 50 to 12 in its original form—all the amendments having been rejected by large majorities.

This action needlessly delayed, has been, as intimated above, already anticipated by the thoughtful public, who will heartily endorse the action of our representatives at Washington. Had the Treaty been ratified, as it undoubtedly might have been, one day earlier, the English Commissioners could have returned with the assurance that their labors, in conjunction with the American Commissioners, had met with the approbation of our Government. As it is, however, the general result will probably not be materially affected by the delay. That the Treaty is regarded with favor in England we have the statement of the London Times that "the settlement by the Commissioners of the Alabama claims is honorable to England, and that the object of both countries has been realized, that though the treaty represents no perfect compromise, it is still acceptable for the sake of peace, and has been practically ratified by the people of both countries. The Times is a true thermometer, rarely failing to correctly indicate the state of British public opinion, and its utterances may be regarded as authoritative. That the Treaty is favorably regarded in the Dominion, we have the assurance of Sir John A Macdonald whose opinions we publish in another place. A few malcontents will be found grumbling in both countries, but we feel confident that in a popular vote the action of the Commissioners would receive the approval of a full two-thirds, if not more, of the people who look at the matter in its true light, divested of all the superfluities and excrescences with which some would be statesmen have endeavored to load it down.

The call for the Democratic State Convention to be held in Granite Hall, Augusta, on Tuesday June 27th, appears in the Democrat this week. Gen C W Roberts publishes a letter in the same issue, declining a renomination. He says —

"The political signs of the times, everywhere of late have been too ominous too significant to be easily misinterpreted. A brilliant future doubtless awaits our tried, steadfast and time honored Democracy. Nevertheless, I must at all hazards, during the coming campaign, be permitted to serve in the ranks rather than in a more elevated position."

A Big Offer. The New York Commercial Advertiser says an offer has been made to the U S Treasury by Jay Cook, on behalf of his own house and principal subscription agents to take on the 1st of June the whole of the new five per cent. loan not then subscribed for, to the amount of $130,000,000. The offer was regarded favorably by Secretary Boutwell.

The official copy of the Treaty of Washington as ratified, was delivered to the President yesterday morning and thence transferred to the State Department, where it will be placed in a box prepared for the purpose and sent to England. The injunction of secrecy has not yet been removed from the vote of the Senate in detail.

Three Bishops were elected at the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church held in Philadelphia in 1864—D W Clarke, Edward Thompson and Calvin Kingsley. All three are now dead. The next General Conference will be held in Brooklyn, in May, 1872, when probably five Bishops will be elected to supply the place of those deceased and of Bishops Morris and Baker who are quite infirm.

Spain and Cuba. A Washington despatch to the N Y Tribune says the relations between our Government and the authorities in Cuba are assuming a position of peculiar delicacy.

It seems that positive orders from Spain, issued at the instance of Minister Sickles and sent through the Spanish Minister here have been repeatedly ignored in Cuba, unless certain conditions imposed by the Captain General were agreed to by the United States. The action taken by our Government arose from an attempt to secure the release of certain plantations owned by American citizens, residents of New York, that had been seized by the Captain General, really at the dictation of the volunteers, and sold or held for the benefit of the Bank of Havana, which had advanced large sums of money for gunboats, pay of troops, and various other military expenses amounting in the aggregate to nearly $8,000,000. To secure the Bank, the plantations in question are held. These circumstances were, at the instance of Secretary Fish made known to the authorities in Madrid by Minister Sickles, who acted with promptness and efficiency in the matter, and soon obtained orders for the instant release of the property of all American citizens. These were sent to the Spanish Minister here, who communicated with our State Department, and then forwarded them to the Captain General of Cuba. No attention was given to them. Other similar orders have since been returned with the information that the property in question will be released upon the payment of certain heavy sums named. There are grave diplomatic complications existing between this country and Spain at the time these orders were given, which should have led to a prompt compliance with them. The repeated refusals to recognize the authorities at Madrid has added to the grave difficulties of the case. The explanation of the Captain General's position here is that he is wholly under the control of volunteers.

The Presbyterian General Assembly in session at Chicago on Wednesday, increased the Memorial Fund Committee to fifteen. The Board of Home Missions last year expended $352,844, which is $708,981 in excess of receipts, and aided 1234 missionaries and assistants who have performed an aggregate of 905 years service, and preached the gospel steadily in 25,000 places. The total additions to churches are 11,016, and 340 Sabbath schools were organized during the year; 156 church edifices have been built, and 108 repaired or enlarged; church debts cancelled, amount to $228,626, and contributions to the memorial fund, $384,410. Rev. Drs. Kendall and Dickson urged the Assembly to provide more funds, as unless help was given from the memorial fund or other sources, the board would be indebted to missions not less than $100,000 by November.

The Republican members of the Indiana Legislature introduced a bill depriving the divorce law of the State of some of its worst features, but the Democratic majority failed to pass it.

Sir John A. Macdonald Interviewed.

Sir John A Macdonald, the Premier of Canada and Dominion representative on the Joint High Commission, was interviewed in New York by a Standard reporter who had the following conversation with him —

Reporter. I wanted to have a little talk with you about the result of your consultation at Washington.

Sir John. Well, that has all been published, hasn't it?

Reporter. Yes, in a semi-official manner. But I want to learn from you what you think of it in a Canadian point of view.

Sir John. It will do. I am satisfied with it.

Reporter. How about the fisheries question?

Sir John. We had to give that, but it is not such a great concession after all. You cannot compete successfully with us in that matter.

Reporter. But you remember, Sir John, that our right of fishing in Dominion waters was denied in retaliation for our refusal to extend the Reciprocity treaty?

Sir John. Perhaps so, but I think you lose as much by that as we do.

Reporter. How will the Canadians consider your giving up the fishery?

Sir John. I think they will be satisfied — You see this was a very grave question, involving a variety of interests, and as we owe something to the Home Government the fishery matter was the least we could concede, and even in that we have made a good bargain.

Reporter. How is the feeling in regard to annexation in Canada?

Sir John. We never heard anything about it but from your papers.

Reporter. But the Lower Canadians are said to be strongly in favor of it.

Sir John. By whom? Not by them, I think.

Reporter. You must remember if the San Domingo matter goes through all right we shall be looking for Canada next.

Sir John. (Laughing.) You may look but you won't find.

Reporter. Don't you think a good vote for annexation could be obtained in Canada?

Sir John. No, I am sure it could not, but I have no time to discuss that question.

Fall of a Meteor. Mr Edward Burgess of Searsmont, sends the Belfast Journal the particulars of the fall of an aerolite or meteoric stone in the southern part of that town on Sunday morning last, about 8 o'clock. There was first heard an explosion, like the report of a heavy gun, followed by a rushing sound, like the escape of steam from a boiler. The sound seemed to come from the south, and to move northwardly. The stone fell in the field of Mr Bean, the flying earth being seen by Mrs Buck, who lives near. The hole that it made was soon found, and the stone dug out. It was quite hot and broken, so it could be removed only in pieces. The most of it is now in possession of Mr Luce, who dug it out. The outside shows plainly the effect of melting heat. It struck with such force as to penetrate the hard soil to a depth of two feet. The stone is of a grayish color, except upon the outside, where it is quite black. It is just twenty two years, to a day, since a similar stone fell at Castine. It was much less in size, and penetrated two inches into a hard dry road. It came from the south east, and was accompanied by a report that was heard at a distance of thirty miles. The occurrence of these phenomena is as old as recorded history, and they happen in all parts of the world. Sometimes the stones are of immense size. One in South America is estimated to weigh 30,000 pounds and there is one in Yale College that weighs over 1600 pounds. These stones have all one composition iron being uniformly the largest ingredient, combined with nickel copper tin magnesium, aluminum, &c.

Maine Homœopathic Medical Society. At the opening of the session Wednesday morning, in Portland, Dr William Gallupe, of Bangor, read a lengthy report of several interesting cases which had come under his observation.

The committee on nominations reported the following list of officers for the ensuing year, which was accepted, and the gentlemen named therein unanimously elected.

President, J B Bell, M D, of Augusta; Vice Presidents, Moses Dodge, M D, of Portland, and R. S M Cate M D, of Salem, C H Farnsworth, M D, of Cambridge, J W Drake, M D, of Dover and S M Gale, M D, of Newburyport, were elected honorary members — Dr S P Graves, of Saco, was appointed delegate to the annual meeting of the Homœopathic Society of New Hampshire, and Dr C H Burr of Portland, delegate to the annual meeting of the Massachusetts Society — It was voted that the next annual meeting be held at Augusta, on the 23d day of May, 1872, commencing at 11 o'clock in the forenoon — After listening to an interesting paper on obstetrics, by Dr. E Clark, of Portland, the meeting adjourned —Portland Press.

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL

Gen Sheridan has arrived in Chicago.

Senator Wilson of Mass. has engaged passage in the Scotia for Liverpool, June 7th.

A Chicago dispatch states that Gen O O Howard has purchased a residence in Glencoe, on the north Lake shore.

Thomas Clarke Luby, released from the Irish prison with other Fenian exiles last winter, arrived in New York City Tuesday from Hamburg and was banqueted by a number of prominent Irishmen Wednesday night.

The St. Louis Democrat calls upon Carl Schurz to define his political position, and says that as the Republicans of Missouri sent him to the Senate as a sincere advocate of the National Republican cause, he should vindicate his fidelity and attest his devotion to Republicanism rather than his hostility to the President.

The condition of affairs in the disturbed districts of South Carolina is summed up by a correspondent as follows.

"The better classes hate and despise the State Government, the poor whites, ignorant and cowardly, but cruel and revengeful, detest the negroes as their rivals in labor and politics, the negroes distrust the whites, and always fear that an attempt will be made to remand them to slavery, incompetent and dishonest men have been placed in office by the well-meaning negroes, mysterious and murderous Ku Klux gangs go about the country. the State Government is weak and vacillating, and many of its officers are more intent on filling their pockets than upon enforcing the laws and protecting the citizens."

Foster Convicted. Foster, who murdered Mr Putnam a short time since on a New York street car, was convicted yesterday of murder in the first degree, with a recommendation to mercy. Foster's wife, on the announcement, was affected with tears, but he remained unmoved and was remanded until to-day, for sentence. Judge Stuart, Foster's counsel, entered a motion for an arrest of judgement, which will be argued to-day. He also complained of the many articles which lately appeared in the city newspapers and especially of one in the Tribune yesterday morning, and moved for the arrest of the Editor of the Tribune for contempt of Court, but Judge Cardoza declined to grant the motion.

The fires on the mountains in Sullivan, Ulster and Delaware counties, N. Y., have swept over 10,000 acres of woodland. Three cabins were destroyed, and it is believed that all the occupants perished.

Rare Chance.

A Valuable House for Sale,

The owner, having removed from the city, wishes to sell this house, situated on West Broadway. It is a large new, two-story house with a French roof, and is furnished throughout in the best manner and with all the modern improvements. It is situated on one of the pleasantest street in the city, and all of the surroundings are as good as could be found anywhere. The lot contains about seven eighths of an acre (162 feet on the street and about 350 feet back) and is all under a high state of cultivation. The soil is very nice and light. There are nearly all kinds of fruit trees and shrubbery on the lot, and a nice flower garden beside the house. It is seldom that such a chance is offered to persons wishing to buy a nice house.

It must be sold immediately. For particulars inquire at No 4, Broad Street, Bangor.

Soldiers of the War of 1812,

ATTENTION!

Congress has passed a law giving a Pension of $8 per month to the officers, soldiers and Seamen of the war of 1812, who served sixty days or over, and to the widows of such as have died, and who were married previous to 1815, thus doing justice to this brave and meritorious band of patriots. I have all the rolls and records of this service, and they are not to be found in any other place in this State, to my knowledge.

I will give every soldier the benefit of these records to establish his claim to a pension, and I will assist him in the prompt and speedy prosecution of his claim. If the soldiers' discharge is lost, these records are invaluable.

The fee is fixed by law at $10, no charge made unless a pension is obtained.

Application can be made in person at my office in Bangor, or by letter, giving name of Company, officers, date and length of service, &c.

VERSAILLIST VICTORIES.

Versailles, May 25. Picard read an official dispatch in the Assembly to-day, announcing that Fort Montrouge, the redoubt of Hautes Bruyeres, the Pantheon and wine market had been taken by the forces of the Government. Nothing is known as to the fate of the hostages in the hands of the insurgents and gloomy apprehensions are entertained in regard to them. It is rumored that the Versaillists occupied Buttes de Chaumont, whence the insurgents have been bombarding the city with petroleum shells.

GERMANY.

Berlin, 25. Emperor Alexander of Russia will arrive in Berlin on the 9th of June, and will witness the triumphant entry of troops on the 11th.

In the German Parliament to-day, the debate on the bill incorporating Alsace and Lorraine with the Empire, Bismarck said the task he undertook when he became Minister, to establish the Empire was nearly accomplished. He remained only as advocate for the complete restoration of the [illegible] of Alsace and Lorraine to the [illegible]. He complained of the lack of confidence shown by Parliament. Unless the amendments had made to the bill were expunged he would withdraw the measure and let the Emperor appoint an irresponsible Minister in his place. A vote was taken, and the bill was sent back to the Committee for revision

GREAT BRITAIN

PARLIAMENT

London, 25. In the House of Commons, Mr Ryland gave notice of his intention to move a resolve that the treaties be submitted before ratification Gladstone opposed any immediate expression of sympathy with France, as the government had as yet received no official information of the acts and the accounts in the public prints are doubtless exaggerated

THE SENATE IN SPECIAL SESSION

WASHINGTON, May 25

The Senate met at 11 o'clock and Mr Cameron, at the request of Mr Sumner, waived the motion for an executive session in order to allow the latter to make a personal explanation Mr Sumner said he had seen in the Daily Chronicle a statement purporting to report what he did in Executive session yesterday He was astonished that the paper conducted by a gentleman who officially occupied a seat in the executive session in the Senate should attribute to a Senator what he never said He had now to state that what was attributed to him was a fabrication and that he made no such speech

The Senate refused, by a tie vote of 21 to 21 to go into executive session, but after hearing Mr Carpenter's statement that the special Investigating Committee on the disclosure of the treaty would report in three quarters of an hour, went into secret session the presiding officer stating that Mr Wilson's motion for the discharge of White and Ramsdell immediately on the final adjournment of the Senate, would be the first business in order on resuming open session

MISTAKEN IDENTITY Thomas H Murray who was arrested in Boston on Tuesday, on the charge of complicity in the recent burglaries in this city, was yesterday discharged, having proved to the satisfaction of the Police Court that he was another man and in another place at the time of the burglaries, and has never before been in Bangor Curiously enough, his name and personal appearance correspond precisely with those of the real criminal, which led to his arrest. He was discharged from custody, and City Marshal Bolton put him on board the 3 P M train, giving him money to pay the expenses of his return trip

THAT BLOCK. Mr Editor Your notice of the painting of the ancient building at the corner of Hammond and Columbia streets, and the hope expressed that something better may take its place before many years, is very proper, and is appreciated by the owner You are aware that between this corner and the central business of West Market Square, there is a great gulf over which business does not naturally pass. The City lot, a space of nearly one hundred feet is kept open between these two points More than thirty years since, Otis Small Esq, proposed to lease this lot for the erection of a three-story brick block, which in twenty five years should revert to the city. Had this offer been accepted, the city would now be in receipt of some two thousand dollars annual rent. But a few years since, three responsible merchants offered to buy this lot, and to erect thereon a block equal to Wheelwright & Clark's building But all offers have been rejected, and the lot still produces its annual crop of burdocks and dandelions. When this vacant space is filled with something worthy of its location, the antique building on the corner and the more antique carpenter shops above it, will in their proper order, give place to a better class of buildings than present circumstances will admit of. BASIN MILLS. One of the newspaper correspondents who were on the Pullman excursion, gives the following description of Walker's Basin Mills, in Orono:—

Here a huge, quiet basin is formed by a curve in the river and the intervention of an island, and a vast and [illegible] harbor for logs, unaffected by the currents or freshets, is allowed. Space is thus gained for six millions of lumber in the vast enclosure, which has often held that amount. The huge mill, which is a structure about five hundred feet in length, with all the means and appliances for reducing lumber from the rough to the manufactured article. Four huge gang saws were devouring logs in the rough as fast as stout, red shirted lumbermen could supply them. Six or eight single saws vie with that able maw into great logs, dividing them as the workmen directed; the air was vocal with the hum of circular saws, the buzz of lath machines, the rattle of shingle and clapboard saws—the operators at these last machines displaying a speed and dexterity that was marvelious to the unitiated The rapidity with which great logs were reduced to shingles, boards, laths and clapboards, was a marvel, but many hands made light work, and two hundred and fifty stalwart workmen here turn out in seven months 20 million laths, 10 million shingles, 2 million of clapboards and 3 million pickets and staves, besides 30 million of long lumber, a total of 65 millions long and short during the working season, being able to average 300,000 feet per day. This is loaded directly into lumber vessels at Bangor, after being rafted to that port, about five miles distant and despatched to different points of destination.

THE DOCTOR OF ALCANTARA. The first performance of Eichberg's Opera Bouffe, 'the Doctor of Alcantara," given in City Hall last evening by amateurs of this city under the direction of Miss Blanche Howard and Miss Grace Ross, was attended by a large and fashionable audience, and was a success in every particular

The announcement was as follows —

Donna Lucrezia,	MISS ANNIE EGERY
Isabella	MISS NELLIE CHAPMAN
Inez	MISS GRACE ROSS
Carlos	MR. CHAS D CLARK
Doctor Paracelsus	MR J STERN
Don Pomposo	MR GEORGE MOODY
Balthazar	MR H D FULLER
Perez	MR W J WEBB
Sancho	MR E J FENNO
Business Manager	MR F WILLIS RICE

Stage Arrangements by Messrs Fuller & Rice
Costumes from the Boston Museum

Chorus —Mr Augustus Champlin Miss Blake, Miss Morrill Miss Varney the Misses Emerson, the Misses Rice, Miss Bragg, Miss Bishop, and Miss Annie Ross

Orchestra, (under the direction of Miss Howard)—Miss Howard Piano Mr W E Brown, 1st Violin Mr H G Foulkes 2d Violin Mr F W Hardy Violoncello

The cast proved very efficient and the performance exceedingly enjoyable. Although we did not attend with an eye or an ear to criticism the several merits of the amateurs render their united efforts a fit subject for public comment.

Miss Ross (Inez) was quite at ease on the scene careful in manner and just in her rendition of the part, her full, clear, well trained voice and piquant personation of the mischief loving lady's maid winning rounds of hearty applause from the delighted auditory

Miss Chapman (Isabella) is a promising singer, whose voice evinces a careful cultivation, and she deservedly shared the honors with Miss Ross

Miss Egery furnished an agreeable study of the venerable Spanish intriguante, Donna Lucrezia and her fine soprano was managed with admirable effect in the solos, as well as in the concerted music

Mr Stern gave a most satisfactory rendering of that gloriously imbecile practitioner, Doctor Paracelsus In make up, voice and action, he realized the part to the entire exclusion of his genial identity Even "Schneider would have been puzzled by the transformation

Mr Clark's Don Carlos is deserving of much praise His rendering of the part would have done credit to an old professional, and was highly appreciated by the audience

The Don Pomposo of Mr Moody lacked nothing of burlesque effect in make up or manner, and much sport was afforded by his capital conception of the inflated alguazil

Balthazar is not a musical part and is only introduced to culminate the scheme of absurdity, but Mr Fuller made the most of it and his efforts were successful in exciting the risibles of the audience

Messrs Webb and Fenno appeared very well in the minor parts of Perez and Sancho

The Choruses were well sung and by their precision showed how thorough had been the drill The Orchestral accompaniments were played in excellent taste and added much to the enjoyment of the performance This is the first opera ever given entire, in Bangor and the enterprise of the ladies and gentlemen engaged in its presentation deserves warm encouragement. We trust that the prestige and success of this initial effort will incite the young vocalists to a further development of their pronounced talent

The 'Doctor' will be repeated this evening and a matinee will be given to-morrow afternoon

CONSUMPTION

ITS CURE AND ITS PREVENTIVE

By J H. SCHENCK, M. D.

Many a human being has passed away for whose death there was no other reason than the neglect of known and indisputable proven means of cure Those near and dear to family and friends are sleeping the dreamless slumber into which had they calmly adopted [illegible]

DR JOSEPH H SCHENCK'S SIMPLE TREATMENT

[illegible] wonderful efficacy [illegible]
Dr Schenck has in his own case proven that where [illegible]
In this statement there is nothing presumptuous [illegible] the said times substantiated [illegible] the theory of the cure by Dr Schenck [illegible] is as simple as it is unfailing Its philosophy requires no argument It is self assuring [illegible]
The Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are the first [illegible] which the citadel of the malady is assailed [illegible] of the cases of consumption originate in dyspepsia and a functionally disordered liver With this condition the bronchial tubes sympathize with the stomach They respond to the morbific action of the liver Here then comes the culminating result and the setting in with all its distressing symptoms of

The Mandrake Pills are composed of one of Nature's noblest gifts—the Podophillum Peltatum They possess all the blood searching alterative properties of calomel but unlike calomel they

"LEAVE NO STING BEHIND

The work of cure is now beginning The vitiated and mucous deposits in the bowels and in the alimentary canal are ejected The liver like a clock is wound up It arouses from its torpidity The stomach acts responsively and the patient begins to feel that he is getting at last

A SUPPLY OF GOOD BLOOD

The Seaweed Tonic in conjunction with the Pills permeates and assimilates with the food Chylification is now progressing without its previous tortures Digestion becomes painless and the cure is seen to be at hand There is no more flatulence no exacerbation of the stomach An appetite sets in

Now comes the greatest Blood Purifier ever yet given by an indulgent father to suffering man Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup comes in to perform its functions and to hasten and complete the cure. It enters at once upon its work Nature cannot be cheated It collects and ripens the impaired and diseased portions of the lungs In the form of gatherings it prepares them for expectoration and lo! in a very short time the malady is vanquished the rotten throne that it occupied is renovated and made new and the patient, in all the dignity of regained vigor steps forth to enjoy the manhood or womanhood that was

GIVEN UP AS LOST

The second thing is the patients must stay in a warm room, until they get well It is almost impossible to prevent taking cold when the lungs are diseased but it must be prevented or a cure cannot be effected Fresh air and riding out especially in this section of the country in to fall and winter season are all wrong Physicians who recommend that course lose their patients if their lungs are badly diseased, and yet because they are in the house they must not sit down quiet, they must walk about the room as much and as fast as the strength will bear to get up a good circulation of blood The patients must keep in good spirits—be determined to get well This has a great deal to do with the appetite and is the great point to gain

To despair of cure after such evidence of its possibility in the worst cases, and more certainty in all others is sinful Dr Schenck's personal statement to the Faculty of his own cure was in these modest words

Many years ago I was in the last stages of consumption confined to my bed, and at one time my physicians thought that I could not live a week then like a drowning man catching at straws I heard of and obtained the preparations which I now offer to the public, and they made a perfect cure of me It seemed to me that I could feel them penetrate my whole system. They soon ripened the matter in my lungs and I would spit up more than a pint of offensive yellow matter every morning for a long time

As soon as that began to subside my cough, fever pains and night sweats all began to leave me, and my appetite became so great that it was with difficulty that I could keep from eating too much I soon gained my strength and have grown in flesh ever since.

I was weighed shortly after my recovery added the Doctor, then looking like a mere skeleton; my weight was only ninety-seven pounds my present weight is two hundred and twenty-five (225) pounds, and for years I have enjoyed uninterrupted health.

Dr Schenck has discontinued his professional visits to New York and Boston. He or his son, Dr J. H. Schenck, Jr still continue to see patients at their office No 15 North Sixth street Philadelphia, every Saturday from 9 A M to 3 P M Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged $5 The Respirometer declares the exact condition of the lungs and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not

The directions for taking the medicines are adapted to the intelligence even of a child. Follow these directions and kind Nature will do the rest, excepting that in some cases the Mandrake Pills are to be taken in increased doses, the three medicines need no other accompaniments than the ample instructions that accompany them. First, create appetite. Of returning health hunger is the most welcome symptom. When it comes, as it will come, let the despairing at once be of good cheer Good blood at once follows, the cough loosens the night sweat is abated In a short time both of the morbid symptoms are gone forever

Dr Schenck's medicines are constantly kept in tens of thousands of families. As a laxative or purgative, the Mandrake Pills are a standard preparation while the Pulmonic Syrup, as a cure of coughs and colds, may be regarded as a prophylacteric against consumption in any of its forms.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic, $1.50 a bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills, 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists and dealers.

THE DOMICILE ERECTED BY JOHN.

Behold the mansion reared by dædal Jack!

See the malt stored in many a plethoric sack,
In the proud cirque of Ivan's bivouac.

Mark how the rats' felonious fangs invade
The golden stores in John's pavilion laid.

Anon, with velvet foot, and Tarquin strides,
Subtle Grimalkin to his quarry glides—
Grimalkin grim who slew the fierce rodent,
Whose teeth insidious Johann's sack-cloth rent.

Lo! now the deep-mouthed canine foe's assault
That vexed the avenger of the stolen malt
Stored in the hollow precincts of that hall
That rose complete at Jack's creative call.

Here stalks the impetuous cow, with crumpled horn,
Whereon the exacerbating hound was torn,
Who bayed the feline slaughter beast, that slew,
The rat predaceous, whose keen fangs ran through
The textile fibers that involved the grain
That lay in Hans' inviolate domain.

Here walks the forlorn damsel, crowned with rue
Lactiferous spoils from vaccine dugs who drew
Of that corniculate beast, whose tortuous horn
Tossed to the clouds in fierce vindictive scorn
The bayed hound, whose braggart bark and stir
Arched the lithe spine and raised the indignant fur
Of puss, that with her vermicidal claw
Struck the weird rat, in whose insatiate maw
Lay reeking malt, that erst in Ivan's courts we saw.

Robed in senescent garb that seems in sooth
Too long a prey to Kronos' iron tooth,
Behold the man whose amorous lips incline,
Full of young Eros' osculative sign,
To the lorn maiden, whose lactalbic hands
Drew albu-lactic spoils, from lacteal glands
Of that immortal bovine, by whose horn
The best catulean, vexer of that sly
Ulysses quadrupedal, who made die
The old mordaceous rat, that dared devour
Antecedaneous ale in John's domestic bower.

Lo! here, of hirsute honors doffed, succinct
Of saponaceous locks, the priest who linked
In Hymen's golden bands, the man unthrift
Whose means exiguous stared from many a rift
Even as he kissed the virgin all forlorn,
Who milked the cow with implicated horn,
That in fierce wrath the canine torturer shied,
That dared to vex the insidious muricide,
Who let auroral effluence through the pelt
Of that sly rat that robbed the palace that Jack built.

The loud cantankerous shanghai comes at last,
Whose shouts aroused the shorn ecclesiast,
Who sealed the vows of Hymen's sacrament
To him who, robed in garments indigent,
Exosculates the damsel lachrymose,
The emulgator of the brute morose,
That tossed the dog, that worried the cat, that killed
The rat that ate the malt, that lay in the house that Jack built.

Translated from the Vulgate of M. Goose, by A. Pope.

ROSSINI'S VILLA.

AN INCIDENT OF THE FRANCO-PRUSSIAN WAR.

This Villa Rossini, (says Fulbert Dumonteil, a French writer,) which all Paris knew, is situated on the Avenue Ingress, at the gate of the Bois de Boulogne, with its back as it were against the ramparts. Large, high, white, square, and citizen-like, it lifts its head rashly above the fortifications, and seems built on purpose to receive the bombshells. There lived and died the author of Guillaume Tell. And from there, our Remingtons upon our shoulders, our revolvers in our belts, we set out for the Moulineaux, the bridge of Sevres or Billancourt. Rossini adored his villa and this charming, this admirable Bois de Boulogne, where he walked incessantly till it became like his own private park. Everybody knew him, in the neighborhood, and the guards of the Bois pointed out complacently the little valley where he promenaded every morning, and the rustic bench on which he used to sit. Where now shall we find the little bench and the tufted valley? where the Bois de Boulogne? It burns between our two andirons. Poor Rossini! He, whose teeth were set on edge so by the shrill scream of the locomotive, what would he have said of the marine pieces of the honorable M. Fleuriat de Langle, pleading without respite, but a little strong, the cause of Paris? What would he have said, above all, to see his peaceful villa, where he far-niented so voluptuously, transformed into a post of franc-tireurs? In the ante-chamber, instead of flowers, caps and knapsacks, carbines and bayonets. In the vast kitchen where, gently leaning on his long cane, he did not disdain to come and watch with his own eye, so amiable and fine, the macaroni that he loved, a franc-tireur is paring onions, or stewing a cat, soldier-fashion. In the grand saloon, painted in fresco, are mattresses in place of tapestry, and on these mattresses franc-tireurs snatching a little broken sleep between two cannon shots. In the time of the illustrious maestro I visited his celebrated villa, and I found it adorned with magnificent presents and precious souvenirs; on the mantel-piece, marvels of art, a very beautiful and very fine figure of the master of the house; then a superb medallion in in Sevres porcelain, with the names of all Rossini's masterworks for an inscription. Further on, in a delicious little saloon, all hung with chintz, a very curious Æolian harp. In place of the harp we have to-day a chest—our chest of cartridges! A large and beautiful iron railing, opening upon the garden, at the left of the oriental kiosk of the concierge, led obliquely to the house. But in front of the doorsteps on the Avenue Ingres, was a little gate half hidden by dense ivy and surmounted by a gilded lyre. It was Rossini's private entrance, and it was there we mounted guard. Here, too, Rossini loved to stroll under the shade of the sycamores of the avenue, and to mingle, unknown, with the ball-players at the Ranelagh. Bombs have replaced the balls, and instead of the little gilded lyre, the flag of Geneva flaps sorrowfully in the wintry wind, and seems to bleed with its two cross-shaped wounds. The greatest luxury of this historic villa, which now for nearly five months has been our post of privilege, is the garden sown with greensward and masses of shrubbery, decorated with statues and with a very beautiful fountain in carved stone; three allegorical figures, Faith, Hope, and Charity, sustain evangelically a huge vase, from which fall long and tufted garlands of ivy. One morning, after passing a snowy night upon the outposts, amid fire of musketry, we came back more in the humor I assure you, of swallowing a good soup, than of humming a grand aria from "Guillaume Tell." In crossing the garden I suddenly descried a superb angora hanging in a bush, an angora of the handsomest, the fattest, the most tender species! Providence has good moments, said I to myself. Behold our breakfast! Doubtless it is the God of armies who has sent it. Surely he has felt some compunctions, for, it must be confessed, he spoils us only moderately. Saying this, I unsheathed my sword-bayonet; the furious cat glares wildly at me, and, with a bound, takes refuge at the feet of three theologic virtues—of the fountain. I was hungry and gave chase; with a new bound he leaps upon the shoulder of Charity, as if he would make appeal to my sentiments of humanity. I was hungry, I repeat it. I draw my revolver and take aim. Behold the creature crouching on the arm of Hope! I aim again, I fire, and........I perceive my angora squatting like a sphynx upon the head of Faith. From the pedestal he plunges into the thicket and disappears. 'Tis faith alone that saves! That morning we breakfasted upon a shoulder of King Charles. In the neighborhood of the villa Rossini, at nearly equal distances, dwelt formerly Proudhon, Jules Janin, Lamartine. The chalet of our master, Jules Janin, has always remained the discreet sanctuary of the Muses; but the abode of Proudhon has become a post of veterans or guardians of the peace; the chalet of Lamartine, those Charmettes, in the Bois de Boulogne, has been transformed into a park of artillery, and cannons crouch where sighed the singer of Elvire Graziella. But as for us, we make our camp at Rossini's. To-day, tirailleurs and franc-tireurs have quitted the villa of the great maestro, and without doubt the little gilded lyre will shine again above that gate where we kept guard. Adieu, Rossini! and in the language of the franc-tireur of my company, Pallas, poor Pallas in deep mourning thanks Apollo for his hospitality.

COMPUTING DRESSED WEIGHT.—The rule for computing the dressed weight, by measurement, of cattle, hogs, and sheep, is this: Ascertain the girth in inches back of the shoulders, and the length in inches from the straight or square of the buttocks to a point even with the shoulder blade. Multiply the girth by the length, and divide the product by 144 for the superficial feet by one of following numbers for animals of different girths, and the product will be the number of pounds of beef, pork, or mutton in the four quarters of the animal.

For cattle of a girth from 5 to 7 feet, allow 23 pounds to the superficial foot; of a girth of from 7 to 9 feet, allow 31 pounds; of a girth of 3 to 5 feet, 16 pounds.

For sheep, hogs or pigs, calves, etc., measuring less than 3 feet girth, allow 11 pounds to the superficial foot.

Here is an example which will illustrate the rule: A hog girths 3 feet 3 inches, and its length (as above) is 2 feet 8 inches—39 inches girth multiplied by the length, 32 inches, gives 1,248 inches. To obtain the superficial feet, divide by 144, giving 8 2-8 which multiplied by 16 (the number of pounds allowed to the superficial foot for animals of this size), gives as the weight 138 2-3 pounds.—[Western Rural.

It is well-known that Miss Nilsson has indorsed several different piano-fortes, each being the best, and we have her opinion upon articles of food. Messrs. Dix & Case, fish dealers of Chicago, Ill., publish the following in their advertisement:

SIRS: These codfish is elegant, their flavor is high, so is them Herron. I recommend them as I do you, to all lovers of good eaten.

And it gives a reason for the faith that is in it—namely: "He was an eminently social being, one who loved his companions and sought society, not exclusiveness nor solitude."

PREPARING CORN GROUND.—A correspondent of the Ohio Farmer says: Always, if possible, plough the ground just before planting. If sod, never until the grass is well started. Then the grass will furnish food for worms, and also commence heating or rotting at just the right time to make the young corn grow rapidly. How to plough.—If your land lies high and dry, and you wish to plant in hills and rows both ways, commence in the center of the field and back furrow until finished; thus you avoid tramping upon any of the ploughed ground. If low ground, plough in beds, north and south, wide enough for five or seven rows of corn, one row on the ridge, two or three on each side dropping the corn at the edge of every fourth furrow in drills, with plenty of seed, then harrow the ground thoroughly; as soon as the corn is up harrow again; then in a few days cultivate and thin out to suit. I plough sward land from five to six inches deep; old land seven to eight inches.

CANCER CURES. Dr. D. W. Bliss, one of the leading medical practitioners of Washington, D. C., has met with wonderful success in using a decoction of the bark of the cunderango bush as a specific for cancer. A few pounds of this bark was forwarded by our Minister at Ecuador, where it is found in the interior, and it has produced almost magical results, Mrs. Matthews, the mother of Vice President Colfax, being one of those afflicted by cancer who have been wonderfully benefited by it. Dr. Bliss regards it as much of a specific in diseases of the blood depending upon the defective condition of the pabulum, as quinine is in fermentive diseases. He has sent his assistant, Dr. Keene, to Ecuador to obtain a supply of this panacea, and expects him back with it prior to the first of July. Meanwhile he will report to the regular medical journals the results of his experiments. Some remarkable cures effected by the use of a decoction of the common red clover, drunk as a tea and used as a wash, have lately called the public attention to the medical properties of this plant. This, however, cannot be said to be a new remedy; it has been employed for some years past, and there are some apparently well-attested cases of its efficacy even after the disease had become distressingly painful, and all hope was given up.

HOW DRUNKENNESS IS PRODUCED.—A sudden mental emotion can send too much blood to the brain; or too great mental excitement does the same thing. It is the essential nature of all wines and spirits to send an increased amount of blood to the brain. The first effect of taking a glass of wine or stronger form of alcohol is to send the blood there faster than common; hence it quickens the circulation; it gives a red face; it increases the activity of the brain, and it works faster, and so does the tongue. But as the blood goes to the brain faster than common, it returns faster, and no special harm results. But supposing a man keeps on drinking, the blood is sent to the brain so much faster, in such large quantities, that in order to make room for it, the arteries have to enlarge themselves; they increase in size, and in doing so press against the more yielding flaccid veins, which carry the blood from the brain, and thus diminish their size, their bores; the result being the blood is not only carried to the arteries of the brain faster than is natural or healthful, but is prevented from leaving it as fast as usual; hence a double set of causes of death are set in operation. Hence a man may drink enough brandy or other spirit in a few hours or even minutes to bring on a fatal attack of apoplexy; this is literally being dead drunk. [Hall's Journal of Health.

Important Notice

TO

Ship Owners.

AMERICAN LLOYDS OFFICE,
Burling Slip, New York,
Jan. 31, 1871.

The Register for 1871 is now ready. The January Supplements will contain the introduction to the history of the "Register." In order to supply the demand for the "Exposition, an extra edition will be printed and furnished gratuitously to all parties in possession of a book called the "Record," or a book called the "American Lloyds Universal."

HARTSHORN & KING.

The American Lloyds Register, being the acknowledged standard of American surveys of shipping, approved by underwriters generally, and adopted by the Peruvian Government as a standard for the selection of ships to carry Guano, also by the California Board of Underwriters and the West India Lloyds at Havana, &c., &c., it is important to owners to have their vessels surveyed and classed in its "Register." Having competent surveyors throughout the State of Maine, I am prepared to order or make surveys personally, of those apply, and to grant certificates under the "Standard Rules" issued by the Board. Also parties can be supplied with copies of the American Lloyds Register, for 1871, by sending their orders to me at the National Insurance Company, Bangor.

Money Cannot Buy It

For Sight is Priceless!

THE DIAMOND GLASSES,

Manufactured by J. E. SPENCER & CO., New York which are now offered to the public, are pronounced by all the celebrated Opticians of the World to be the MOST PERFECT, Natural, Artificial help to the human eye ever known.

They are ground under their own supervision, from minute Crystal Pebbles, melted together, and derive their name, "Diamond," on account of their hardness and brilliancy.

The Scientific Principle on which they are constructed brings the core or centre of the lens directly in front of the eye, producing a clear and distinct vision, as in the natural healthy sight, and preventing all unpleasant sensations, such as glimmering and wavering of sight, dizziness, &c., peculiar to all others in use.

They are mounted in the finest manner, in frames of the best quality, of all materials used for that purpose. Their finish and durability cannot be surpassed.

CAUTION.—None genuine unless bearing their trade mark ◇ stamped on every frame.

LOWELL & SENTER,

Jewelers and Opticians, are Sole Agents for Bangor, Maine, from whom they can only be obtained. These goods are not supplied to Peddlers, at any price.

Approved, February 21, 1871.

[GENERAL NATURE—No. 23.]

AN ACT for the relief of certain purchasers of lands from the legal representatives of Bartholomew Cousin.

Whereas the claim of Bartholomew Cousin, or his legal representatives, is embraced in Recorder Bates'[s] report of February second, eighteen hundred and sixteen, and confirmed to the extent of a league square, and survey numbered two thousand one hundred and ninety-six was made for the same in the year eighteen hundred and eighteen; and whereas a further confirmation was made of eight hundred and ninety-nine arpens, or six hundred and sixty-four and seventy-eight hundredths acres, in the favorable report, numbered sixty-one, of the board of commissioners, under the acts of Congress of the years eighteen hundred and thirty-two and eighteen hundred and thirty-three, confirmed by the act of July, eighteen hundred and thirty-six: Therefore,

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That it shall and may be lawful for the county surveyor of the county of Cape Girardeau, or whomsoever may be designated by the Commissioner of the General Land Office, to select an area, in compact form, as near as may be to the quantity of acres of the confirmation by act of July fourth, eighteen hundred and thirty-six, according to legal subdivisions, and in full satisfaction of said claim: beginning at a corner where a line of the survey numbered two thousand one hundred and ninety-six intersects the north line of section twelve, township thirty-one north, range eleven east, near the northeast corner of said section twelve; thence with said line of said survey two thousand one hundred and ninety-six to a corner of said survey two thousand one hundred and ninety-six, in section twenty-three of said township and range; thence westwardly on a line a sufficient distance that a line projected northwardly parallel with the western boundary line of survey numbered two thousand one hundred and ninety-six, and running eastwardly to the place of beginning, will include the said quantity of six hundred and six-four and seventy-eight hundredths acres; and thereafter, and within one year from the passage of this act, the parties claiming in right of said Cousin any tract outside of the limits of said survey numbered two thousand one hundred and ninety-six, and the selection authorized by this act to make good the second confirmation aforesaid, be, and are hereby, authorized, on satisfactory proof to the register and receiver of the land district in which said tracts are situated, of such right, to make payment therefor at the rate of one dollar and twenty-five cents per acre, or by pre-emption or claim of homestead, according to the laws of the United States in such cases made and provided.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That any tract or parcel of land, after the survey and adjustment of said confirmation, which is not embraced therein but withheld from sale by the Government of the United States by reason of the supposed interference and non-survey of said second confirmation, thereafter and in one year from the adjustment of said survey any party or person residing upon cultivating such tract or parcel of land withheld from sale as aforesaid at and before the passage of this act, upon making satisfactory proof to the register and receiver of the land district in which such tracts or parcels are situate of actual settlement according to the provisions of this section, be, and are hereby, authorized to enter said tracts, not to exceed one hundred and sixty acres, including improvements, at one dollar and twenty-five cents per acre, or claim the same as a homestead, agreeably to the act of Congress granting homestead to actual settlers.

Approved, February 18, 1871.

[GENERAL NATURE—No. 25.]

AN ACT to repeal an act entitled "An act for the survey of grants or claims of land," approved June second, eighteen hundred and sixty-two.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That an act entitled "An act for the survey of grants or claims of land," approved June second, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, being chapter XC of the act of the second session of the Thirty-seventh Congress of the United States, be, and the same is hereby, repealed: Provided, That the repeal of said act shall not affect any rights heretofore acquired under the same.

Approved, February 18, 1871.

[RESOLUTION OF GENERAL NATURE—No. 9.]

JOINT RESOLUTION authorizing the sale of a portion of the Fort Leavenworth military reservation to the Kansas Agricultural and Mechanical Association, of Leavenworth county, in the State of Kansas, for fair grounds.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Kansas Agricultural and Mechanical Association, a corporate body organized under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Kansas, is hereby authorized to purchase from the United States, for the sole purpose and use of such association as a fair ground, and for experimental agriculture and horticulture, that portion of the Fort Leavenworth military reservation bounded and described as follows, viz: Commencing at the south-east corner of the premises herein described, at a point one hundred feet north and in continuation of the west line of Sixteenth street, as laid down and recorded in the map of the city of Leavenworth, and one hundred feet north of the south line of said reservation; thence running westerly and parallel to said south boundary two thousand five hundred and eighty feet to the east line of Nineteenth street; thence northerly and in continuation of the east side of said Nineteenth street two thousand one hundred and seventy-five feet; thence easterly and parallel to the south line of said reservation two thousand five hundred and eighty feet; thence southerly and parallel to the west line of the premises herein described two thousand one hundred and seventy-five feet, to the place of beginning, containing one hundred and twenty-eight and eighty-two one-hundredths acres of land, more or less; reserving to the government or assigns the right to the coal, or royalty for coal, underlying the same.

SEC. 2. And be it further resolved, That the Secretary of War is hereby directed to appoint a commission of competent army officers, of such number as he may deem best, which said commission shall, without unnecessary delay, examine and report the true value of the land herein before described to the Secretary of War. On receipt of this report, the Secretary of War will forward certified copies of the same to the Secretary of the Interior and to the Kansas Agricultural Association.

SEC. 3. And be it further resolved, That whenever the association thus notified shall place to the credit of the United States with the Treasurer of the United States, in lawful money, the amount of said appraisal, and notified the Secretary of the Interior of such deposit, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Interior to cause to be issued to the said Kansas Agricultural and Mechanical Association a patent for the said land above described: Provided, That the association shall make the said deposit within one year from the date of the notice of appraisal from the Secretary of War.

Approved, February 9, 1871.

[RESOLUTION OF GENERAL NATURE—No. 10.]

JOINT RESOLUTION to exempt certain boats from the payment of marine hospital dues, and for other purposes.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the provisions of an act entitled "An act to reorganize the marine hospital service, and to provide for the relief of sick and disabled seamen," approved June twenty-nine, eighteen hundred and seventy, and also the provisions of the first section of a certain other act entitled "An act to regulate the foreign and coasting trade on the northern, northeastern, and northwestern frontiers of the United States, and for other purposes," approved July one, eighteen hundred and seventy, shall not apply to nor be construed to include canal-boats employed in navigating the canals within the United States, notwithstanding such canal-boats may be enrolled or licensed for the coasting trade; and no person employed in or connected with the navigation, management, or use of canal boats in the coasting trade shall by reason thereof be entitled to any benefit or relief from the marine hospital fund.

SEC. 2. And be it further resolved, That the seventh section of the last above-mentioned act be, and the same is hereby, amended so as to extend to all vessels navigating the waters of said frontiers otherwise than by the sea, the fees for the entrance and clearance of which shall be as follows: For the entry of a vessel direct from a foreign port, fifty cents; for the clearance of a vessel to a foreign port, fifty cents; Provided, That ferry boats running on routes, duly bonded, and used exclusively for carrying sealed cars, under the provision of section five and six of the act of July twenty-eight, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, and the regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury, and ferry-boats carrying passengers and their personal baggage only, shall not be required to enter or clear, or to pay entrance or clearance fees; but such baggage shall, however, be subject to the provisions of section forty-six of the act of March two, seventeen hundred and ninety-nine, and acts supplementary thereto: And provided further, That enrolled or licensed vessels departing from or arriving at a port in one collection district to or from a port in another collection district, and also touching at intermediate foreign ports, shall not thereby become liable to the payment of entry and clearance fees, or tonnage tax, as if from or to foreign ports: but such vessels shall, notwithstanding, be required to enter and clear.

Approved, February 10, 1871.

[RESOLUTION OF GENERAL NATURE—No. 11.]

A RESOLUTION authorizing the use of a naval vessel to transport breadstuffs to Europe.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President of the United States be, and is hereby, authorized to cause to be stationed at the port of New York, and the ports of Boston and Philadelphia, if the same can be done without injury to the public service, one or more of our naval vessels, to be there held in readiness to receive on board for transportation such supplies as may be furnished by the people of the United States for the destitute and suffering people of France and Germany.

Approved, February 10, 1871.

[GENERAL NATURE—No 24.]

AN ACT to cede to the State of Ohio the unsold lands in the Virginia military district in said State.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the lands remaining unsurveyed and unsold in the Virginia military district in the State of Ohio be, and the same are hereby, ceded to the State of Ohio, upon the conditions following, to wit: Any person who, at the time of the passage of this act, is a bona fide settler on any portion of said land may hold not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres so by him occupied by his pre-empting the same in such manner as the legislature of the State of Ohio may direct.

Approved, February 18, 1871.

75,000 Acres

OF GOOD

Timber Land

For Sale at a Low Rate,

Situated on Moose River, in the town of Greig, Lewis County, New York.

Said timber consisting of White Hemlock, Spruce, Pine and Hardwood. The subscribers own two large tanneries, located on the aforesaid tract, which will consume the hemlock bark, thus enabling the land and timber to be purchased at a comparatively cheap rate. The timber is excellent in quality in all particulars. The aforesaid tract of land is easy of access, being only from six to fifteen miles from both the Black River R. R. and Black River Canal, which lead direct to the Albany Market. The land is comparatively level, well watered and good for farming purposes. Moose River, which extends through the tract, is a large stream and empties into Black River, where the aforesaid Canal leads into Black River. At this point or junction of the rivers, is a fall of sixty (60) feet, over which the waters of both rivers flow, thus forming an unlimited water power, (we might say right in the Canal and at the Depot,) to which Moose River will carry the immense amount of timber from the aforesaid lands.

Any parties desiring to manufacture lumber will do well to give this rare opportunity their attention. The land and timber can be purchased at a cheap rate or the timber alone permitted.

LYNDE HOTEL

ROCKLAND, MAINE,

G. A. LYNDE, - - Proprietor.

THE HOUSE has been erected the present season, on the corner of Park and Main St. Rockland, and is now open for the public patronage.

Clean beds, pleasant rooms, good fare, and careful attendance, will be offered to the guests of this house, and no pains will be spared to make their stay agreeable. Nearly every room looks out upon the bay, and every room in the house is pleasant, thus affording to persons desirous of enjoying the sea breeze and spending the summer months, an opportunity to do so, without locating on an island, where they can enjoy the sea air and nothing else.

Have taken especial pains to prepare convenient sample rooms.

Carriages to take passengers to and from the house free of charge.

Good Livery Stable connected with the house, and good stable for transient horses.

Assignee's Sale of Real Estate.

Under an order of the District Court of the United States for the District of Maine, I will sell by public auction to the highest bidder, at the MILFORD EXCHANGE, in MILFORD, on THURSDAY, the eighth day of June 1871, at ten o'clock A. M. all the right title and interest belonging to the Estate of GEORGE W. HOWARD, Bankrupt, on the 28th day of March, A. D. 1870, in and to the following described real estate situate in Greenfield, in the County of Penobscot, State of Maine, viz:

1. One undivided sixth part of lots numbered 1, 2, and 3, in the tenth Range; 1, 2, and 3, in the eleventh Range; 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5, in the twelth Range in said Greenfield.

2. One undivided sixth part of lots numbered 1, 2, and 3, in the first Range in said Greenfield.

3. One undivided sixth part of about 9000 acres or other lots in said Greenfield, being one sixth part of all the land and lots, excepting the aforesaid lots enumerated in parcels 1 and 2, that was conveyed to said Bankrupt by deed of George P. Sewall, dated Nov. 6, 1867, and recorded in Registry of Deeds in Penobscot County, in Vol. 371, page 5-8.

Said sixth part of all the above named lots in Greenfield is subject to a mortgage to George P. Sewall, recorded in the Registry of Deeds in Penobscot County, Vol. 373, page 58, and certain unpaid taxes on same, and I am authorized at my discretion to sell the whole of said mortgaged premises in one parcel, subject to said mortgage to said George P. Sewall and unpaid taxes, or to sell the same in the above described parcels, and out of the proceeds of said sale to pay the amount due on said mortgage.
